Norwood Evening Garden Club to Hold “Fabulous Fall” Flower Show

The Norwood Evening Garden Club will hold a small standard flower show on October 14 and 15 at the Westwood Public Library. The show will be only the second one produced by the club in its 20-year history.

Nancy Costa, president of the Norwood Evening Garden Club, says “We’re excited to be able to hold our flower show at the beautiful Westwood Library. Our “Fabulous Fall” show is open to the public and it’s free! ”

The show runs from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on October 14 and from 2 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. on October 15 at the Westwood Public Library, 660 High Street in Westwood.

The schedule for the flower show includes flower arrangements, horticultural specimens from members’ gardens and an educational exhibit. All exhibits will be judged by National Garden Clubs accredited flower show judges. The flower show is supported in part by a grant from the Norwood Cultural Council, a local agency which is supported by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency.

A member of The Garden Club Federation of Massachusetts, New England Garden Clubs, and National Garden Clubs, Inc., members of the Norwood Evening Garden Club have been providing education and public beautification in Norwood and its surrounding communities since 1996. The Club, open to novice and expert gardeners, draws its members from Norwood, Walpole, Westwood, Dedham, Medfield, Randolph, and Stoughton.
