Norwood Evening Garden Club Awarded Blue Ribbon at Boston Flower Show

The Norwood Evening Garden Club won a blue ribbon for their exhibit in the Amateur Horticulture Structures class at the Boston Flower & Garden Show held at the Seaport World Trade Center March 11-15. This is the 14th year they have exhibited at the Boston show.

Tracy Firth, president of the club and member of the flower show committee, said: "I am really excited and pleased with our win. A lot goes into putting together even a small exhibit such as ours; it is a true labor of love. We continue to exhibit both to educate the public and to hone our own horticultural skills."

The club also received three Cultural Certificates for Horticultural Excellence for three of the plants in their exhibit.

A member of The Garden Club Federation of Massachusetts, New England Region, and National Garden Clubs, Inc., members of the Norwood Evening Garden Club have been providing education and public beautification in Norwood and its surrounding communities since 1996. The Club, open to novice and expert gardeners, draws its members from Norwood, Walpole, Westwood, Dedham, Medfield, Randolph, and Stoughton. For information about the Norwood Evening Garden Club, contact Susan Pearson at 508-668-4039 or visit www.NorwoodEveningGardenClub.com.
